

DOROTHY DALGLIESH SCHOOL LITERACY EVENING

ROCK & ROLL LITERACY

FAMILY EVENT, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 6:30 P.M.

We invite parents and children from Dorothy Dalglish School to an evening literacy event with well-known Canadian author Sigmund Brouwer.

Expect videos, music, stories and a chance to win books as door prizes! The presentation format is perfect for all ages, so join us as a family for a fast-moving and fun hour at the hall. Books will also be available for purchase.

Justine McKeen, Queen of Green

Justine and her friends are out to spread the word. Justine talks too much, bosses people around too much, and as everyone soon finds out, she tells the truth, but just not all at once. Justine's trying to save the planet, one person and one cause at a time. Best of all, when she decides to get something done, it involves a whole lot of laughter and fun for everyone.

Rebel Glory

When a string of recent 'accidents' threatens to knock his team out of the playoffs and ruin his promising career, B.T. McPhee has to find out what is happening. Otherwise the team's season and his career will surely end.

"I was unable to put it down. . .if you like hockey, you'll love the series."

--Ron MacLean,
Hockey Night In Canada

The Howling Timberwolves

From CM Magazine: "With the series, Brouwer ably weaves a believable tale around a life-lesson using humour, likable characters and the great Canadian game of hockey, to appeal to a wide audience of readers. Sports fans will not be disappointed with the hockey scenes, and the jokesters will chuckle over Johnny's mishaps."

"Only 52% of Canada's population over 16 years of age reads at or above the level determined to be essential for living and working in modern society."***

Let's work together to make sure our kids excel in these crucial skills. Motivation and practice will give them the head start for success.
